EVERY CHILD
DESERVES A BED

Emylee and her two children became homeless and lived in multiple hotels after escaping an unsafe environment. YOUR SUPPORT enabled the family to furnish their new home. "If it weren't for...The Mustard Seed and the community, I probably would have lost my kids by now."

Maritza survived the Pulse nightclub shooting that killed 49 victims and wounded 53 others on June 12, 2016. After the tragedy, Maritza suffered from PTSD and became homeless. YOUR GENEROSITY enabled Maritza to make her new house into a home. "Thank you for everything," Maritza said.

Thanks to YOUR COMPASSION, Ronald, who served in the Army during the Vietnam War, left The Mustard Seed with a new bed, couch, tables, a TV and home décor to furnish his new home.

"This is awesome," Ronald said of receiving furniture assistance. "I couldn't believe I could get this furniture. I'm in awe."
